On 04.03.2020

On 04.03.2020, The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of P.B. College initiated a dialogue series focusing on Research, Innovation, and Best Practices within the college community. As part of this series, Dr. Gopal Ch. Barman was invited to deliver a talk on "Dalit Identity in Indian Literature." Dr. Barman provided a detailed analysis of identity politics and Dalit identity within the framework of postmodern studies. He emphasized the Subaltern theory and discussed the placement and perception of Dalits as examined by scholars like Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak and Ramachandra Guha. Dr. Barman's lecture sparked thoughtful reflection among the attending faculty members and students from various departments, stimulating intellectual engagement and discussion.
